

Go on a Field Trip

It's time for a treasure hunt! Find a place outside your house or nearby where you can sit and be totally quiet. Pretend you are invisible, or that you are one of the plants or animals. Shhhhhh!

*Down among the cobwebs, at the roots of grass,
Green and creepy quiet, dewy beads of glass,
Little spiders spinning, beetles bumbling through...*

— NANCY DINGMAN WATSON

After a few minutes of silent watching and listening, start making notes. Think about what month it is and look for clues to the season.

Colors you see.

Can you see:

- * Dark green
- * Light green
- * Pink
- * Yellow
- * Brown

Sounds you hear:

Can you hear:

- * Wind in trees
- * Birds singing
- * Insects buzzing

Some clues to the season.

Can you find:

- * Chewed acorns
- * Dying flowers
- * Buds on the trees
- * Ice on a puddle

